JUROR: Tom Matousek is a self-taught, award-winning artist in Northern California, a working professional. Started as a successful, award-winning Muralist and Set Designer artist in the San Francisco's theater district and surrounding areas. In 2010, won the Shellie Award (East Bay's version of the Tony's). During this period, Tom Matousek developed his unique style and found his artistic voice. Named, artist in residence, for the DDR Corporation which sent him around the country to create community art projects based on his artistic style. In 2013 and 2014, featured at the world's largest chalk festival in Pasadena, CA and at the Art Basel in Miami, FL. In 2016, Tom's childhood dream came true when he signed as an officially licensed Disney artist and licensed Chuck Jones Galleries (Looney Toons). In 2018, Tom was further honored to go to the Senate and House of Representatives with the Frederick Douglass Foundation to launch the bicentennial celebration honoring the birth of Mr. Douglass. Matousek's portrait of Frederick Douglass is the official logo for this celebration. Currently Tom has three exceptionally large paintings of Disney, Harry Potter, DC, Marvel and Star Wars characters which are permanently displayed at Stage Nine Entertainment in Old Sacramento.
